

Nora Gallagher, in her book Things Seen and Unseen, wrote about her journey as a Christian in the Episcopal Church by saying, "I came to this church as a tourist and ended up a pilgrim." She came just to look and then go on her way. Instead, she stayed and ended up on a journey, a journey with twists and turns, a journey that would change her understanding of herself, God and others. It was a journey that would ultimately lead her from being just a listener to a proclaimer of the Gospel; a journey that would lead her from observation to transformation.

My guess is that many of us first experienced church as tourists. If, like me, we were brought up in the church, our first memories may be those of observing: seeing beautiful vestments or hearing the music or watching people stand, sit and kneel – and trying to keep up. We may have come because we wanted to hear the music or participate in it; or we were interested in the architecture of the building; or we were trying to keep friends or family happy. But then something happened. Over time, we were no longer onlookers but participants; no longer visitors but regulars.

We may have come expecting certain things and ended up on a path we couldn't have imagined. We may have come looking for ways to earn God's love but discovered it was a gift. We may have come looking for people like ourselves but found our exact opposites. We may have come expecting to have our ideas and prejudices confirmed and instead found them turned upside down and inside out. We may have come looking for black and white but found a rainbow. Whatever the case, we have seen our lives slowly transformed as we continually move from being tourists to pilgrims.

It wasn't that long ago that I myself came to this cathedral as a tourist – first viewing it on the website, finding the place and the people interesting, but only from a distance. But now I'm on a journey here – with you – wondering where God will take us, how he will transform us, what we will discover about God, this place and one another along the way: what gifts God will call out of us, what ministries he will give us in order for us to be the Body of Christ to one another, to the Diocese, to the City of Buffalo and beyond.

In the Celtic Church, monastics and others would set out in coracles with no idea where they would land. They simply trusted that God had brought them together for the journey, that God would lead them where they needed to go, and that, through them, his Gospel of love, forgiveness and grace would be spread to others. And so it was, for it was through those journeys that the church continued to grow, as early Christians were led to certain distant shores and so began to spread the Gospel.

None of us at this point in time knows exactly where God is leading us – but we do know three things for certain: God has brought us together, is leading us into the future and through us, by God's grace, the Gospel will be spread. For although we may have come to the church as tourists, we've ended up as pilgrims.

The Very Rev. N. DeLiza Spangler, Dean-Elect

THANK YOU FROM DEAN ELECT SPANGLER

Thank you to so many of you who have made us feel welcome as we settle in to St. Paul's and Buffalo. There are so many people who have helped us out: those who talked to us about neighborhoods and housing; those who offered us housing during the initial renovation of our home; those who have invited us over for meals or brought us meals while we live in a house that continues to be renovated; those who have generously given us their expertise in everything from mortgages to legal work; those who have helped me find my way around everything from the buildings to the sacristy, from the liturgy to the music. (And I have only set off the cathedral alarm once so far).

It is with great joy that I come here and it is with great trust in God's grace and guidance that I look forward to where we will go together in our life as Christians and as part of this wonderful cathedral community.

THE CRY OF A TINY BABY

Redemption rips through the surface of time in the cry of a tiny baby—B. Coburn

“Well,” said Kate Olena as we cleaned up the costumes from the pageant on Christmas Eve, “It was another Christmas miracle!” It was a miracle for so many reasons. Would the little angels find the way to go? They did! Would the shepherds remember what to do? They did! Okay, a few sheep strayed, but a few errant sheep only add to the charm. When the little baby Jesus, was put in the arms of Mary, and Mary's face looked like it might break with joy, it took my breath away!

Mary laid the baby in the manger, and all you could see of the baby Jesus were her tiny hands grasping at the air. Angels and shepherds peeked their heads over the top of the manger; their eyes were wide, and they smiled with wonder and delight. For a moment Joseph held the microphone to the baby's mouth, and we heard a tiny cry.

In that moment it happened—time stopped. All the stress and angst of a modern Christmas were forgotten; in those few seconds it felt like we were all there—in Bethlehem. I turned to look at the watchers in the congregation. Everyone smiled unselfconsciously, faces transfixed with joy.

The wise men came bearing gifts, we sang “Go Tell it on the Mountain,” and then it was over. Kate said afterward, “There's a reason why a little child will lead them.” All the while we thought we were doing the pageant for our children—and we did. But really, they, and the tiny baby, led the grown-ups to Bethlehem on Christmas Eve.

INSTALLATION OF OUR NEW DEAN

You are invited to the installation service for our new Dean on Saturday, March 25, 2006, the Feast of the Annunciation, at 10:30 a.m. Bishop Michael Garrison will preside. More information will follow in the March Chimes.

VESTRY HIGHLIGHTS

The January 17th Vestry meeting was a time of welcoming our new Dean to her first St. Paul's Cathedral Vestry meeting and a time of thanking valuable vestry members whose terms ended in January.

Dean-Elect Spangler opened our meeting with a prayer and then shared her views in regard to maintaining a healthy, cooperative work environment. We welcome her and look forward to her leadership as we carry on our mutual ministries.

You will hear more about the vestry decision to re-instate the Day-Buy-Day fundraiser which many of you supported in the past and have asked about. The Stewardship Committee is looking into other fundraising activities which they hope will be fun and profitable for us. Feel free to share any ideas you have with them.

After some mundane business activity, the Vestry was presented with a proposed 2006 Budget from the Finance Committee. Again, some belt-tightening will be necessary and more work needs to be done to raise the bar on our giving. After some brief conversation about the budget, it was approved unanimously by the Vestry.

Departing vestry members were thanked for their dedicated service. For your information those members are Allyn Foster, Muriel Poole, Tom Salvatori, Roger Seifert, Paul Stecker and the two youth members, Anna Hezel and Kristen Saetveit, We hope Anna and Kristen especially leave this group having learned something valuable about church governance. It was a pleasure to have them among us! We thank all these fine people for their dedicated service to St. Paul's Cathedral and look forward to their continued ministries in other areas.

After closing prayers, this Vestry joined members of the past two vestries in a small committee event planned to honor Roger Seifert for his past three years of extraordinary service to St. Paul's Cathedral. We're sure you would agree that the hundred of hours and immeasurable energy he has given to St. Paul's is worthy of this special acknowledgement from those of us who worked closely with him during some difficult times. Please join us in thanking Roger for his dedicated service.

Beverly Fortune, Junior Warden

GIFTS AND DONATIONS WELCOME

Is there someone you would like to honor with a gift to the cathedral? Or are you interested in donating something that would enhance our worship? If so, the cathedral is in need of a new set of white vestments, along with a matching frontal, pulpit fall and Bible markers. If you are interested in making a donation toward this, please contact Dorothy Pope, chair of the altar guild, at 881-4907.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR FAMILY VIOLENCE OUTREACH

The Family Justice Center of Erie County seeks qualified volunteers to support a comprehensive center for victims of Family Violence and their children. Victims of domestic violence in Erie County will soon be able to come to one location to avail themselves of one or more services: talk with an advocate, get a restraining order, plan for their safety, talk to a police officer or sheriff, meet with a civil attorney or a prosecutor, receive forensic medical assistance, and counsel with a chaplain.

Our services hold a high accountability for victim safety and self-determination as well as perpetrator accountability in a community network grounded in zero tolerance for Family Violence. The Family Justice Center (FJC) is targeted to open late February. The hours: Monday through Friday 8:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Several volunteer opportunities are available - all positions require a time commitment of a minimum of 4 hours/week, 16 hours/month. Background checks are required. Comprehensive training classes are now forming.

- Administration- Volunteers who work on administrative duties will work closely with the Administrative Assistant and Project Coordinator who will provide projects that will need to be completed for the FJC. Qualifications: must have basic computer skills with Microsoft Office software.

- Reception and Hospitality - Volunteers supervise and provide for the well being of clients while they are waiting to meet with professionals from FJC partner agencies. Responsible for assisting the primary receptionist or covering the reception desk in their absence. Responsibilities include supervision of the child waiting area. The Program Coordinator supervises these volunteers. Qualifications: must have excellent customer service skills with adults and children; Multilingual a PLUS!

- Intake - Volunteers support the professional advocates in assuring the individual needs of each client are met. The Program Coordinator supervises these volunteers. Qualifications: must have excellent customer service skills with adults and children; BSW or MSW ideal; Multilingual a PLUS!

- Interfaith Chaplain - Volunteers are lay or ordained and provide non-proselytizing spiritual support and direct services to clients of all faith traditions, as well as to FJC staff. The Chaplain Program Manager supervises these volunteers. Qualifications: a member of good standing within their faith community required; minimum of 1 unit CPE strongly recommended; Multilingual a PLUS!

- Inquiries and resumes should be sent to: Family Justice Center: 237 Main Street, 14th Floor, Buffalo, NY 14203 Attn: Leann McConchie

OVERTURES FROM THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT

PIERRE PINCEMAILLE

Parisian Organist makes his Buffalo debut in improvisation concert.

Pierre Pincemaille, Organist of the Cathedral of St. Denis in Paris, France, will be appearing in concert at St. Paul's Cathedral on Friday February 10, 2006 at 7:30 pm.

"The playing is remarkable... you can't get better than this!" (The Organ, UK)

Pincemaille is renowned worldwide for his skills as an improviser – that is, a classical musician who can compose music spontaneously at the keyboard, much like a jazz player. St. Paul's is promoting a series of three events showcasing the art of improvisation and Pincemaille's concert will set a blistering pace. He will create music in the style of Bach and in the style of the great 19th and 20th century French composer-organists. The cathedral choirs will sing music by Bach, Buxtehude, Vierne, Dupré and Fauré.

The skill of improvisation is an ancient one and many of the world's greatest composers were also fine improvisers. Bach improvised during church services; Mozart improvised bawdy songs and keyboard works at parties, as well as sublime cadenzas to piano concertos; Beethoven improvised piano variations on popular themes of the day, and often left whole portions of compositions un-written – to be created spontaneously on the day of their premier!

Tickets are priced $20, $10 students, $5 children, and will be available at the door (doors open at 6:45 pm), and from the music office. Please call (716) 842-6933.

ASSISTANT ORGANIST-CHOIRMASTER

Good progress is being made in the early stages of a search for a new Assistant Organist-Choirmaster. A job profile has been written and will be discussed by Vestry at its forthcoming retreat. In February a search committee will meet and advertisements will be posted online and in printed publications (including The American Organist and The Association of Anglican Musicians Newsletter).

Details of the position will be sent to all schools with notable organ performance programs. We have already had many expressions of interest (without advertising at all!), so I am confident of a strong field. In the meantime, I will continue to run the program by myself with occasional help from two or three local organists. Our program is large by any standards and the work, though fun and rewarding, is very demanding. I am praying for an early appointment!

Drew Cantrill

CONGRATULATIONS to Grace Hamlin, Ashley Darling, Nora Grace O'Malley and Bella Buscarino who have been made senior choristers in the Girls' Choir; and, in the Boys' Choir, Jonathan Gidley (Wilson Chanter) and Ezra Bedoya, Peter Calleri and Thomas Zicari (Templeton Chanters). These singers have worked hard to earn their promotions and your encouragement is always welcome!

MEN & GIRLS' TOUR 2006

Plans are well advanced for the Men & Girls' tour during July and August 2006. The choir will sing in residence at Chichester Cathedral for a week, before singing at Southwark Cathedral, London for a weekend. Whilst in London the choir will present a fundraising concert with British actor Moray Watson. The second week will be spent in Sweden, singing at venues in and around Stockholm, and at the historic cathedral in Uppsala. Scholarships are awarded to choristers in financial need; please talk to Drew Cantrill if you would like to help in this way.

COME & SING MOZART'S 'REQUIEM'

To celebrate the 250th anniversary of Mozart's birth and to welcome choir alumni back to St. Paul's, the music department and Choir Alumni Association are presenting a 'Come & Sing' Mozart's 'Requiem' on Friday 3 and Saturday 4 March 2006. The event will be directed by former St. Paul's Organist-Choirmaster Bruce Neswick, now Canon for Music at St. Philip's Cathedral, Atlanta, with Drew Cantrill at the organ. All keen singers are welcome to enroll to take part. There is a $20 registration fee (which includes score hire), and the performance schedule for the two days is as follows:

Friday 3 March: 6:00 pm-9:00 pm Rehearsal 1

Saturday 4 March: 10:00 pm -12:00 pm Rehearsal 2; 4:00 pm Concert

Audience tickets for the concert will be available at the door, priced $5.

If you would like register as a singer, please contact the music office at (716) 842-6933. Please help us to publicize this exciting choral outreach event!

BRUCE NESWICK ORGAN RECITAL

As part of the Choir Alumni reunion, Bruce Neswick will also give an organ recital in the cathedral on Sunday 5 March 2006 at 4:00 pm. This concert will be the second in our series of improvisation events: The Illusionist's Art. Bruce is widely respected as one of America's finest improvisers and his playing is recognized for its incisiveness, vitality and expressiveness. Tickets will be available at the door, priced $12.

EVENSONG

Please note that there will be an Evensong on Friday, February 24 at 5:45. Please join us.

LENTEN COURSE OFFERINGS—THE ART OF PASTORAL CARE

The Bishop Brent School for Ministry will be offering a five-session two-hour per session course on the Art of Pastoral Care. The objective is to help the interested person understand the background, nature, and context of Pastoral Care. There will be discussion, opportunities for practice, and homework.

This course is intended as an introduction to Pastoral Care, and not a comprehensive foundation. It is for persons interested in pastoral care in the context of a congregational ministry, to supplement work as Eucharistic Visitors, Pastoral Visitors, understanding congregational dynamics, etc.

The course will use the text, Caring for God's People, by Philip Culbertson, Fortress Press (2000). It is available locally and at www.amazon.com in both new and used editions.

The instructors are: The Rev. Deacon Leann McConchie, Canon for Pastoral Care, St. Paul's Cathedral and The Very Rev. David Selzer, Rector, Church of the Good Shepherd.

The course will meet Tuesdays In March: 7, 14, 21, 28, and April 4th 2006 at the Church of the Good Shepherd, 96 Jewett Parkway, Buffalo, NY 14214, from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm. Each session will end with Night Prayer (Adapted from the New Zealand Prayer Book) at 9:00 pm. The course is $45 and registration is available through Kathleen Williams at 881-0660.

THE STILL, SMALL VOICE OF LOVE

Many voices ask for our attention. There is a voice that says, "Prove that you are a good person." Another voice says, "You'd better be ashamed of yourself." There also is a voice that says, "Nobody really cares about you," and one that says, "Be sure to become successful, popular, and powerful." But underneath all these often very noisy voices is a still, small voice that says, "You are my Beloved, my favor rests on you." That's the voice we need most of all to hear. To hear that voice, however, requires special effort; it requires solitude, silence, and a strong determination to listen.

That's what prayer is. It is listening to the voice that calls us "my Beloved."

DAY BUY DAY

"Day Buy Day" is back. Is there a date such as a birthday, anniversary or some special date in your life or someone close to you that you would like to acknowledge and help St. Paul's Cathedral at the same time? Well, you can do just that. For a donation of $50 per day, you can acknowledge your special date. It is as simple as calling the Cathedral Office at 855-0900 and mailing in your check. You can buy as many days as you like. The names and dates will be noted in the Chimes, weekly bulletin and a calendar at the back of the Cathedral. This is great way to remember someone or something special as well as give to St. Paul's Cathedral. If you have questions please see any Vestry member who will be very happy to assist you.

The first DAY BUY DAY this year was purchased by Concetta and Bill Ferguson in honor of the birthday of Concetta's grandmother, Lena Scarozza, January 20th.

FAMILY JUSTICE CENTER TO OPEN SOON

Serving Buffalo & Erie County

The Family Justice Center (“FJC”) developed to serve Buffalo and Erie County is a new community service launched by and funded by the President’s Family Justice Center Initiative, United States Department of Justice – Department of Violence Against Women.

The FJC is designed to bring together under one roof multiple domestic violence professionals in a collaborative effort to provide domestic violence victims and their children greater support and accessibility to services and resources. This collaborative effort will make the entire process of reporting domestic violence less intimidating and more efficient for everyone involved, while maintaining client confidentiality, safety, and self-determination along with offender accountability, in a community grounded in zero tolerance for domestic violence.

FEBRUARY 3rd is GO RED DAY FOR WOMEN

The red dress is not only the symbol for Heart Disease awareness – but also a symbol of women empowered with the knowledge to take charge of their health, make choices about their health decisions to live longer, stronger lives. “Heart Disease and Stroke are the Number One and Number Three killers of women. They are two of the many cardiovascular diseases that kill nearly 500,000 women each year. That’s more than the next seven causes of death combined including all forms of cancer.” Interested in learning more? Take a moment to surf over to the American Heart Association Website at: <http://www.americanheart.org/> to see the resources available to you.

Parish Nurse, Diana Foster continues to offer her blood pressure screenings on a regular basis. Great health is a choice. You are so worth it. It begins with a single step. There are many great resources to guide you on your journey.

Physical activity is a key factor in lowering your blood sugar and problems related to Type II Diabetes – insulin resistant diabetes. <http://www.justmove.org> is a great resource for both MEN and WOMEN, for health facts, fitness news, user forums, and even a “personal trainer” to get you moving for YOUR good health not only in February, but also into the new year.
